

"Best place for an escape in Wyoming." --Expedia

*"Dubois has been our retreat location for 20 years. We love the scenery and the serenity."
--Susan K. Black Foundation*

Hold Your Best-Ever Offsite in DUBOIS, WYOMING

*Immersed in nature.
World-class connectivity.*

Here's your escape plan...

Renew the team with a remote mountain retreat -- healthy, uncrowded, rejuvenating.

Re-connect while disconnecting.

The adventure begins the moment you exit the airport. For one breath-taking hour, head over a magnificent mountain pass to reach an unspoiled Old West town. You are surrounded by wilderness under a vast, clear sky.

Enjoy health-promoting outdoor experiences and all you need for comfort, relaxation, and focus.

For info visit:
<https://duboisdrive.org/retreats>

ACTIVITIES: Ride. Float. Fly-Fish. And More...

- Take long horseback rides over high plateaus where elk and pronghorn roam, across lush mountain meadows, or through high alpine forests.
- Book a whitewater rafting or float trip on the Wind River Indian Reservation. ($89 /person)
- Enjoy world-class fly-fishing in splendid seclusion, with your own guide. ($450/day for 2 people.)

“Stress vanishes here, leaving behind a new sense of balance and vitality.”

LODGINGS: Rustic to Riches

Butch Cassidy hung out here. So can your gang. Book all the log cabins in an entire guest ranch, stay at a luxury nature spa, or enjoy your own self-contained lodge right in town.

MEETING SPACES: Large or Intimate

Need a separate space for some serious talk? Historic, elegant Dennison Lodge once hosted Clark Gable and Carole Lombard. The Headwaters Arts and Conference Center overlooks a riverside park.

Eateries and Drinkeries: Choose an all-inclusive lodge or ranch, or enjoy the restaurants in town. Feast on elk burgers, fine steaks, pizza, burritos — and kick back afterwards at one of two historic taverns.

An initiative of Dubois DRIVE
(Dubois Regional initiative for a Vital Economy)